- 2. Dr. Kevin Meekeintroduced his class schedule proposal. He heard that other universities have had success with a M W/T-TR class schedule. He also believes that it could help with enrollment. Dr. Madhuri Mulekar agreed that changin to this kind of schedule could be beinefal for instructors and students. Dr. Sytske Kimball expressed concern over having enough classrooms to schedule tolary a week classes. DirtlenHarrington expressed the same concern. Dr. Susan McCreadyas concerned about only meeting two days a wfeetkanguage classes anothered the suggestion that foreign language classes could be held RI so that the language quirement could be completed in one semester instead of two semesters. Wierzbicki stated thattudentattention spans and homeworkeling due on the next day of class could be an issue for \$\mathcal{T}\$ \$\su\$ μ š o •• • X $OEX > OE \cdot d \dot{s}u$ Œ}μPZš μ‰ šZ aspect of power savings being beneficial for the university. Dr. Jason Coym stated that scheduling labs would be a concern. Dr. Ki Franklin mentioned that not holding classes on Fridays could affect ensemble type courses such as marching band. Dr. Philip Habel reminded everyone that Fridays could still be used for internships, meteriangs, that only principle courses would bred on MW/T-TR. He then shared his screen to display a chart of room usage in the Humanities building and that the issue of a room shortage should not be the case. Dr. Timothy Sherman added that although scheduling labs could be a concern, he believætdætding after hours classes could be beneficial. Dr. Jack Shelleyremblay stated that the Psychology department faculty is in support of Ma/TMTR class schedule. Dr. Wierzbickisuggested presenting this proposal to the Faculty Senate and Dr. Ericslaugnered with his suggestion. Dr. JustinSanders asked if the majority of the Chairs were for or against this proposal. Dr. Wierzbicki stated that he would have to be sold on this idea in order to present it to the Council of Academic Deans and would bneed information.
