UpdatedSpring2022

DEm stappove certificate programs for which students are eligible for federal aid 90 days in advance of advertising the program or enrolling students. The notification to DCE must explain the institution is determination that the new program will meet employment market needs and describe how the program was reviewed or approved by, or developed in conjunction with external groups and its acceptance.